Sir:

As a spouse of a current retiree of the Delphi Corporation who also completed 25 years with that company---before separating with a positive mutually exclusive agreement on April 1, 2002---I am very upset that Delphi will "change their position" with regards to assurances made to retiring employees concerning their coverage.

Leonard and I were employees of the company when we met and were married on Feb 26th, 1982. I returned from my honeymoon and was sent to our Personnel Dept. ---to make sure I signed off all legal rights to my health insurance. Most companies compensate individuals for that savings—not Delphi—if the two involved worked at their company ---savings were kept at the company level.

My husband decided to retiree with 35 years of service. At that point in time they sent an email to all employees looking for 4 salary volunteer to leave on a mutually exclusive basis. I was 1 of the 4.

I would have never left the company prematurely—with no health insurance.

Sincerely,
